It was thought by the jury, from the situation of the clothes, that a money belt had been taken from the body. It is most likely so—and that robbery was the object of his horrible crime; as there were powder and caps, there probably had been a gun, but none was found. ig paragraphs: I had occusion in ten weeks since to take the arly train from Providence to Boston; and for this urpose rose at two o'clock in the morning. urpose rose at two o'clock in the morning.—
'verything around was rapt in darkness and ushed in silence, broken only by what seemed that hour the unearthy clank and rush of the ain. It was a mild, serone, mid-ammer night,
-the sky was without a cloud,—the winds were hist. The moon, then in the last quarter, had strisen, and the stars show with a spectra stre is thittle effected by her processes. Jupi r, two hours high, was the horald of the day;— e Pleiades just above the horizon shee thei received and the first, Lyra sparkled near received motors in the first, Lyra sparkled near re Zenith: Ardromeds veiled her newly discovered glories from the maked eye in the South;—te steady pointers, for beneath the Pole, looked needly up from the depths of the North to their overeign.

Such was the glorious spectacle as I entered te train. As we proceeded, the final approach twiight became more perceptible; the intensituo of the sky began to softer, the enablerstars the of the sky began to soften, the smaller stars, the little children, went first to rest; the sisternment of the Pleiades soon melted together; but the bright constellations of the West and North smaining funchanged. Steadily the wondrons an signation went on. Hands of angels hidden from morted eyes whiteal the scenery of the leavens; the glories of high discoved into the juries of the lawn. The blue now turned more offly gray; the great watch-sars shut at their loft eyes; the Bast began to kindle. Faint-streaks of purple soon blushed along the sky; the whole electial concave was filled with the inflowing thes of the morning light, which came pouring des of the morning light, which came pouring des of the morning light, which came pouring own from above in one great ocean of radiances Il at length, as we reached the Blue Hills, a flash If at length, a mean of purple fire blazed out from above the lorizon, and turned the dewy tendtops of flower and leaf into rubies and diamonds. In a few seconds, the verlasting gates of the morang were thrown tide open, and the lord of day, arrayed in glocation servere for the gaze of man, began his

THE GAME EXPOSED AGAIN. -- Those Fillmore now Nothings in New York are a precious set, ead the following from the N. Y. Tines' report the recent doings at Syracuse:

C. D. Brigham, of the Albany Statesman. it, and with great caution made some very in-resting and confidential statements. One of lese statements was the fact that Fillmore is t arey the state very triumphantly; that his ticket ill come to Schnectady from the South and East ith thirty-five thousand majority! and that om that place west, through the central counces, the load will be hard to travel!—that much ork is required there to be done. Another imortant statement was that the Buchanan Central ee met last week and came to the conlusion that their party should support Fillmo the rural districts, where their members ar hiefly natives, but in the cities, in order to re-nin the foreign vote, they are to go for Buchan-n; that the foreigners are thus to be gulled and ept from Fremont. A third important an-ouncement was that Anti-Nebraska Protestants connectment was that Anti-Nebraska Protestants, in other words, North Americans—are to be lept scared by exhibiting Frement as Roman atholic! This programme, this cloquent political leader and editor was confident would seture the State of New York for Fillmore.

OURDEC COURTESIES.-We learn that when the ean Richmond was at Quebec en route for Liverpool, Cape. J. D. A letter from Nicaragua positively allirins that Dr. Livingston, the U. S. Consul at Leon, had not been executed by the rival party, as alleged, and ridicules the rumor to that effect.

Tave Dela; a mulatto, who was forced into the Senate and counselled by foreign influence, in order, as represented, to defeat the trenty made with Goneral Cazneau a year ago. Eillist treaty has been in the postession of our government about four mouths; was not submitted to the Senate for ratification, as unofficial represensations had prejudiced that body against it.

Advices have been received by the Administration, giving glowing assurances of Walker's ultimate successe in Nicaragua.

It is understood there that Scovia's visit to Nicaragua is in connection with the negotiation of the projected two million loan.

There is nothing officially known here as rowhether Consul Livingston has been shot, the the presumption is that he is still alive.
